PASS CHRISTIAN.

Pass Christian, which is now on tap, was never known till recently, and then it sprang upon the map with energy, yet decently. I know not if it be a town, nor what the games they're playing there; You cannot keep a good Pass down when Presidents are staying there. Pass Christian, by the public sheets, has boosted men most cleverly, but silence broods upon the streets and in the hills of Beverly. One burg up, another down, for burgs are like humanity; humiliation holds one down, while one avells up with vanity. Pass Christian throbbed upon the wires for its brief day, however, while silent were the minstrels' lyres and hushed the bells of Beverly. Pass Christian by excitement tossed, saw crowded every hostelry, until her citizens were lost in all the crush and jostling; one day unknown, the next day great, was ever like emergency? Serene and proud she faced her fate, quite equal to the urgency; to entertain her horde of guests she met them all endeavorly, while sorrow filled the manly breasts and chilled the hearts of Beverly.—Walt Mason, in News and Observer.

The most unsatisfactory man to meet is the man who is satisfied with himself.

There were times when I could hardly get through my day's work. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, rid me of the trouble and made me feel better than I had in a long time.
